Guidelines and visions

HOW we see us

Bültmann, a worldwide operating family owned company, deeply rooted in its local region, offers a high standard in innovation for their Bar and Tube Mill Equipment. We are well aware of the social responsibility for our employees, our region and Germany as a location for business and therefore align our entrepreneurial decisions with both economic and social criteria.

WHAT our customers and suppliers can expect from us

Our customers appreciate not only the high quality of our products, but also the comprehensive service and the willingness to find tailor-made solutions for them. Observing the contract, punctuality and a high flexibility are a solid foundation for a truthfully partnership which is kept with the majority of our customers for many years. We also cooperate on a fair and respectful basis with our suppliers and that is why we know the advantages from the customer's point of view.

WHY our employees identify themselves with Bültmann

Our employees with their great professional competence are the decisive factor of success of Bültmann. Self-responsible behavior, flat hierarchies and a challenging and varied task provide a cooperative relationship between all employees. The outstanding commitment to the company over the years is based on a strong identification with our company and our products. Therefore the fluctuation of the workforce is very low.

WHO is trained at Bültmann's

An apprenticeship at Bültmann's not only ensures the future of the trainees but also that of our company. Therefore a regular and first-class education of our trainees is vitally important for us. Again and again the trainees of Bültmann belong to the awarded graduates of their class and generally they are transferred to the salary payroll after having finished their apprenticeship. But not only the professional training of new employees but also the continuing training of the Bültmann staff is a foregone conclusion, first of all for our own benefit.

FUTURE prospects

Our goal is to extend our market position by innovative ideas and a maximum reliability. We want to emphasize the leadership of an environmentally friendly operating global player without losing sight of the responsibility for our employees and our region.
